Getting around Sydney by Public Transport

There are plenty of trains, buses, ferries, light rail (like a tram) and the Metro (fast underground network) to take you wherever you'd like to go. Use the "trip planner app" Transport apps | transportnsw.info to plan your travel by public transport. And if you have time, take a ferry across the harbour! Its a beautiful way to travel.

To pay for all public transport in Sydney, you can simply use your credit / debit card - for more information visit Contactless payments | transportnsw.info Opal | transportnsw.info
